

The power to connect and collaborate. The ability to share and grow together. The inspiration to gather into a global social network, create great artistic content and prosper together.

Powered by the worlds leading community platform, Community Server Enterprise, the same platform that powers MySpace and many other social networks is now integrated into Artistes du Globe. Lets aspire and create together!

For Artists, Producers, Galleries, Teachers...

Experience virtually unlimited freedom to connect and grow. We have developed the Artistes du Globe system to provide you the artist with home profile sites, your own forums and blogs, audio and video players, groups for project management and so much more. The arts community now has the world's first and finest relationship building and knowledge sharing platform coupled with an end-to-end revenue generating technology that directly connects artistic content providers to end customers with real-time payment methods.

Connection with Your Audience...

Communities have been extremely powerful throughout history, especially now that their citizens can be connected over the Internet. Unity and transparency bring growth, power and lasting relationships to the world of connected people of like interest and aspiration. We offer great community features that maximize benefits for an existing and emerging consumer base drawn from diverse corners of the world. Connect and communicate with artists around the world, view and rate new projects. Help shape the lives of artists within the community. Consumers and artists can now connect with other artists, teachers and citizens of the community.

Whats all the Buzz?

Plain and simple, Community is about connection, conversation, collaboration and content. We add much more...

- Simple to use and intuitive. No geeks required to take full advantage of the power to connect around the world.
- Public and private messaging to your Friends, Groups and supporters to keep your artistically inclined friends connected.
- Create and join Groups of artists, teachers, and producers to create projects. Win great awards, connect the audience, share the stage.
- Create your own space, profile, media kits and samples of your work for the world stage. Video, audio and file sharing are yours.
- Create your own Blog and Forum about your ideas and topics of interest. Public and Private Forums that set your artistic wings on air.
- Know and share with others news about events in your area. You can add event descriptions and dates to the Art World Calendar.
- Get the conversation going. Teach, learn, grow together in your own styles. Art is about diversity. This is your stage.
- Safe and Secure - No fence jumpers allowed. Offensive word screening, IP banning, moderation and community unity will prevail.
- Tightly integrated with the powerful Artistes du Globe network for on-demand HD quality performing arts and LCD graphic arts displays.
